

Social distancing doesn't have to stop you fundraising

Will you continue supporting us,
so that we can support others?

Jersey Hospice Care
your care, your choice, your time

Welcome to your alternative guide to fundraising

At Jersey Hospice Care we're still here, and we're still caring for our community. Our specialist teams are still caring for patients on our In Patient Unit and in the community, providing unfailing support in this challenging and difficult time.

We're also increasing and extending our bereavement and emotional support services to ensure that we are there for everyone who needs us. Will you continue supporting us so that we can support others?

We're in very strange times and social distancing and self-isolating has put a stop to traditional fundraising. So, it's time to get creative...

01 Virtual Runs, Walks and Cycles

Social distancing restrictions may have put a stop to official sporting events but it doesn't mean we have to hang up our trainers.

In fact, in this time of social restrictions, getting out can help both our physical and mental wellbeing. Taking on a virtual event allows you to continue to fundraise for us as well as keeping you active and looking after your mental health.

How do I take part in a virtual event?

Simply decide what you want to do – run, walk, or cycle. Pick a distance and get going!

Staying Safe – Please follow the latest guidelines on www.gov.je and remember to adhere to physical distancing rules.

02 eBay and local online selling pages

Online sales are an easy way for buyers and sellers to support their favourite charities including Hospice.

Whether you're selling through eBay, a local Facebook page, or JT Insight why not commit to donating a percentage from any sale to Hospice- and let your buyers know that they're helping you to support a great cause.

You can then transfer the payment to Hospice via www.jerseyhospicecare.com/donate and select "online sale donation".

When you go to sell something online through eBay look for "Donate a portion to charity" when you list your item. Then select Jersey Hospice Care and pick your donation percentage before finalising your listing. After the buyer has paid, eBay's partners at PayPal Giving Fund will automatically send the donation to Hospice and send you a donation receipt.

03 Easyfundraising

Did you know you can raise money for free for Hospice every time you shop online – at no extra cost to you?

Just start your online shopping first at easyfundraising, then shop as normal. Their 4000+ retail partner retailers will then make a small donation to say "thank you".

Get set up in three easy steps:

- Register online for free at www.easyfundraising.org.uk/causes/jhc/

- Every time you shop online, head to Easyfundraising first.
- Pick the retailer you want to buy from and start shopping as normal

After you've checked out, that retailer will make a free donation to Hospice – it doesn't cost you a penny extra!

04 Fundraising Shop

Whether you're clearing out your house (or garage) or looking for a great bargain – make the Hospice Shop in St Ouen your first port of call.

The shop raises over £20,000 a week for Hospice as a result of generous donations and canny bargain hunters. Check out our website to find out what you can donate and our opening times, or give our friendly team a call on 01534 487982 – they do collection and delivery!

05 Co-operative Dividend

You can support Hospice every time you shop at Co-op. Just enter our dividend number – 75.

Whether you choose to do this on double-divvy days or each time you shop at Co-op for a month (or a year!) – it all adds up.

Last year we received over £14,000 from Co-op dividends!

06 Direct Debits and Donations

Many people are now asking friends and family to make a donation to us instead of buying them a gift or birthday present.

You can set up a giving page through JustGiving at www.justgiving.com/jhc - personalise your page and share the link!

You don't even need to tie it in to a birthday or other major event. You could simply set up an fundraising page to help us during these very difficult and uncertain times.

A monthly gift by Direct Debit will make a lasting difference for our patients and their loved ones. The cost of two coffees a month, over a year, could pay for a specialist nurse to visit a patient at home. Go to www.jerseyhospicecare.com/donate to set up a regular gift or make a single gift.

07 Fancy Dress Friday

Whether you're in the office or working from home, why not support Hospice with a "dress down Friday"?

Or perhaps you could go one step further and make it "Fancy Dress Friday" and make this a regular event to boost staff morale and liven up online team meetings while also supporting your favourite charity.

08 Virtual Bake Off

Take part in a virtual bake off with friends and family!

Everyone donates to take part, you can either donate via our website or you could set up a group fundraising page on Just Giving. Bake in your own homes and then share your finished bakes on a group chat like Zoom or Facetime and decide on a winner.

09 Tap to Give

Not carrying cash anymore? Card payments only? You can still donate with our "Tap to Give" donation boxes across the island.

You can find them at Channel Islands Co-operative Society's two Grande Marché stores, as well as Coffee Republic and KFC. If you're in town, you can also tap to give as you go past our Town Fundraising Shop in Union Street. A bright window display features the new device, which you can tap as you go by to donate £2.

"Who carries cash these days? We're now promoting contactless giving for Hospice with their Tap to Give machines and have been delighted by how generous our customers have been."
