Jersey Hospice Care ('we') takes its obligations under data protection legislation very seriously and has robust controls in place to ensure the safeguarding of your personal information. In data protection terms, we are known as the Controller of your personal information, and we are represented by the Data Protection Officer, who can be contacted by email at dataprotectionofficer@jerseyhospicecare.com.

'Compassionate Neighbours' ('the Scheme') is a voluntary initiative, aimed at reducing loneliness and social isolation by utilising trained volunteers who offer friendship and a listening ear to people in Jersey who have a life limiting diagnosis and/or their direct family/carer. We need to obtain personal information from you in order for you to be part of, and for us to manage, the Scheme (this is known as our 'legitimate interest'). *Where you have revealed personal information relating to your health, we need your explicit consent to process it. Only those directly involved in the Scheme and who are appropriately authorised will see it. We will only keep this document for as long as you use the Scheme. Please get in touch if you want more information about the Scheme. You have certain legal rights regarding what we do with your personal data, including the right to withdraw the consent you have given us and the right to complain to the Jersey Office of the Information Commissioner, which can be done at www.jerseyoic.org.

Further details about how we look after personal information can be found in our data processing notice on our website at www.jerseyhospicecare.com/privacy-policy/.
